

September 22, 2008

Thunderbird Announces Trading Symbol Has Changed

Thunderbird Resorts Inc. (CNQ: TBI.U and FSE: 4TR) announces the following:

Effective September 22, 2008 the Company's new trading symbol on the CNQ is TBI.

The Company is pleased to report that British Columbia Securities Commission has removed the Company from the "Issuers in Default List" as we anticipated in our September 19, 2008 press release.

Thunderbird Resorts is focused on being the most successful recreational property developer and operator in each of our markets by creating genuine value for the community, our employees and shareholders. We achieve this mission by offering customers dynamic, themed and integrated resort venues anchored by casinos. Additional information about the Company is available on its World Wide Web site at www.thunderbirdresorts.com.

Contact: Kevin McDonald, Investor Relations

Phone: (858) 668-2503

Michael G. Fox, Chief Financial Officer

E-mail: info@thunderbirdresorts.com

Cautionary Notice: This release contains certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the securities laws and regulations of various international, federal, and state jurisdictions. All statements, other than statements of historical fact, included herein, including without limitation, statements regarding potential revenue and future plans and objectives of the Company are forward-looking statements that involve risk and uncertainties. There can be no assurances that such statements will prove to be accurate and actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the Company's forward-looking statements include competitive pressures, unfavorable changes in regulatory structures, and general risks associated with business, all of which are disclosed under the heading "Risk Factors" and elsewhere in the Company's documents filed from time-to-time with the CNQ and other regulatory authorities.